Building each other up in love and learning

Monday 6th January 2019

Dear Parents/Guardians,

As we move through our history curriculum, our new area of study in the forthcoming weeks will be 'Civil Rights' through to the 21st Century. This will tie in with our PSHE work on democracy and British Values where we celebrate several recent and important anniversaries in the history of British democracy.

We will be asking the children to complete a homework project over the next half term around this area to deepen their understanding. This project will be titled: 'Pioneering Women Then and Now' and should focus on the lives of significant women in history, including significant women of today's society from around the world. It can be presented in any form e.g. poster, leaflet, artwork, portraiture, videos or any other creative presentation you can imagine! However, it must not simply be a page of notes, it should and must represent Year 6 level expectations.

The project is due for submission on Monday 3rd February 2020 and will be marked against the following criteria:

- Overall presentation
- Creativity
- Historical Content
- Use of historical language (use attached Knowledge Organiser to support)
- Accuracy of grammar and spelling used in written elements of the project

Each area will be graded at either:

- Below expected standard
- Working towards expected standard
- Working at expected standard
- Working at greater depth

As ever, if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to get in touch via the email address below.

Kind Regards,

Grace Mizon
